BUILDING PERMITS

Jefferson Hotel to Spend $6,000 On Its Auditorium.

Extensive alterations and improvements are to be made to the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium this summer, including the installation of an ornamental ceiling and complete redecoration. The permit was issued yesterday by the Building Inspector, the contract price being $6,000. The plans do not show any important structural changes, all of the money being spent on interior decorations, improvements to the accoustics and appearance and convenience of the hall.

Other permits were issued yester-once of the hall.

Other permits were issued yesterday as follows:

Charles P. Hartz, to erect a detach, ed, two-story brick dwelling on the south side of Floyd Avenue, between Robinson and Mulberry Streets, to cost $3,600.

PROUD OF MONUMENT

Mayor Wanis Public to Remember His Connection With It.

Revelation of the form in which he would wish to be remembered by the people of Richmond has been made by Mayor D. C. Hichmond has been made by Mayor D. C. Hichmond his that his name may be associated with the Soldiers' and Sallors' Monument on Libby Hill.

Going over the city with former Governor Richard E. Sloan, of Arizona, who has spent two days here, the monument was inspected. The Mayor said: "When I am gone, I want but one thing done in my memory, it is that some one will note on this monument that I was president of the association which erected it."

Mr. Sloan left for Washington yesterday.
